Introduction

The Harmony Report compares two individual's natal charts and examines the inter-aspects or synastry between them. In the following report, each aspect is examined to reveal the basic qualities of your interaction, with the most important factors listed first. Please keep in mind that these descriptions are not meant to put limitations on the relationship, but merely to describe its inherent tendencies. Challenging aspects can become the greatest strength of a relationship if you can both learn how to successfully navigate those issues, with good communication between you playing a vital role. For definitions of astrological terms, please refer to the glossary at the end of this report.

You may notice contradictions in your report; these reflect your complex personality, and that of your partner. For instance, you may be the initiator in certain situations, but other circumstances might bring out your tendency to watch and wait. While your chart may provide helpful insights, it cannot predict the future. You are ultimately the master of your own fate.
